

Revision to HazCom Standard

Sven J. Rundman III, Supervisory Industrial Hygienist
Office of Health Enforcement

Janet Carter, Senior Health Scientist

U.S. DOL / OSHA

Presenter biography

Janet is a Senior Health Scientist with the U.S. Department of Labor, Occupational Safety and Health Administration. She is currently the project lead for the 2021 update to the OSHA Hazard Communication Standard, and serves as the U.S. lead on the UN GHS subcommittee or experts working group on non-animal testing and germ cell mutagenicity. Janet received a BS in Zoology from Miami University, MS in Molecular and Cell Biology from the University of Cincinnati, and studied epidemiology and public health at Emory University Rollin's School of Public Health.

Presenter biography

Sven J. Rundman III is a Supervisory Industrial Hygienist with the U.S. Department of Labor-Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), Directorate of Enforcement Programs, Office of Health Enforcement (OHE), in Washington, DC. Mr. Rundman provides leadership and guidance to the OHE staff in the development of policy and procedures related to the enforcement of OSHA's health-related standards and compliance assistance. This includes the development of interpretation letters, compliance instructions, and compliance assistance tools. Mr. Rundman's subject areas include hazard communication, silica, hazardous waste operations and emergency response, respiratory protection, noise, recordkeeping, and air contaminants.

Presentation abstract

This hazard communication presentation will provide an update to OSHA's recent letters of interpretation, up to date enforcement inspection data, and will cover updated enforcement information on other OSHA initiatives.

In addition, OSHA will be presenting an update to the HCS rulemaking process. In February, 2021, OSHA published a notice of proposed rulemaking to update the hazard communication standard to align with revision 7 of the GHS. In September, OSHA held an informal hearing to receive comments from interested parties that submitted a notice of intent to appear. This presentation will provide a summary of comments received and review of the rulemaking process.